The Actors' Strike

By Joe N. Weber

A FEW YEARS AGO the actors in the legitimate field formed an organization known as "Equity." (This organization must not be confounded with the "White Rats." The former controls the actors employed in dramas, musical comedies, light and grand operas, etc., whereas the latter exercises jurisdiction over the actors in the vaudeville and burlesque field and the amusement enterprises kindred thereto.) The Equity held to the publicly declared opinion that it could be successfully maintained without affiliating with the American Federation of Labor, as improved working conditions could be secured by it for its members without recourse to strikes which labor organizations so often found necessary for the purpose of securing better working conditions and wages for its members. For a time at least the Equity appeared to be successful, as it had reached an agreement with the theatrical producing managers as to the modifications of certain working conditions for the actors. Its amicable relations with the managers, however, came to an end some time before the beginning of the present theatrical season. At that time the Equity requested from the managers improved working conditions, but met with flat refusal, the managers absolutely denying further recognition of the Equity. This somewhat rude eye-opener convinced the actors that after all their place was with organized labor, as the conditions under which they were employed, regardless of the high salaries paid to the leaders in their art, were in no way different than the conditions under which any other class of men or women, who work for salaries or wages as the case may be, are employed. (The dividing line between salaries and wages has not as yet been exactly determined nor will it ever be successfully done—however, it matters little whether a worker's recompense is called a salary or a wage as in either case he is merely an employe and nothing else. This truism the actors, as did the musicians in the long long ago, now fully realize.)

The Equity finally became affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, emulating the example set years ago by the White Rats, and thereafter repeated its efforts to come to some understanding with the managers. However, the managers now gave as a reason for their refusal to negotiate with the actors their affiliation with organized labor. It is, of course, obvious that this was merely an afterthought, as the managers, as before said, had denied recognition to the Equity long before its affiliation with organized Labor.

Representatives of the American Federation of Musicians and the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes, on behalf of the Equity as well as in their own interest and that of organized labor in general, approached the managers with the request to at least meet representatives of the Equity in conference. The managers promptly denied the request and at the same time advised the two organization that they did this realizing that it may also mean a severance of their friendly relations with them.

During the time of attempted negotiations the actors held many mass meetings, during the last of which it was finally decided that nothing short of the calling of a strike held out the promise that the managers would eventually recognize their Association. From that time on matters developed with unusual rapidity. The strike was called and about two-thirds of the principal theatres in Greater New York (exclusive of vaudeville, burlesque, and picture houses which were not involved) closed. The managers retaliated by instigating injunction proceedings and damage suits against numerous individual actors, thereby, of course, expecting to instill fear into their hearts and defeat the object of the Equity to make itself successful as an organization in the defense of the rights of the actor. However, instead of the actors becoming intimidated, the action of the managers only tended to strengthen their morale and, far from having the result of breaking the ranks of the Equity, the injunction and damage suits brought about a spirit of combat of which the Equity can well be proud as it may never be surpassed. The really tense moment of the controversy was created when public announcement of the managers left the fact undisguised that in their procedure against the individual members of the Equity they were emulating the conditions which developed in the famous Danbury Hatters case. Organized labor considered this an unwarranted attack upon the general labor movement and the Central Labor Union of New York, the Organizer of the American Federation of Labor, the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes and the American Federation of Musicians were thereby forced to recognize that the controversy had become of greater import than one between individual unions and their employers. The American Federation of Musicians and the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes now fully realized what was meant when the managers, in answer to their request to at least give the Equity a hearing, responded by saying that they recognized that their refusal of the request may also lead to a severance of the friendly relations between them and the musicians and stage hands. At this juncture the musicians and stage hands surrendered their employment with the managers and this closed all the remaining theatres of the affected class in Greater New York save one.

Meanwhile the Equity arranged theatrical performances in several theatres in New York for the purpose of raising funds to defray the expenses of the strike and probably the most noteworthy of these performances were given in the Lexington Opera House. At these performances the foremost and most famous talent the Equity can proudly boast of (and it is almost unlimited) appeared and the public, who undoubtedly together with most of the press was in favor of the actors, attended these performances en masse.

An actor manager, assisted by a few misguided minions of the stage, formed an opposing actors association for the obvious purpose of defeating the Equity and named it the Fidelity League. This association proceeded to imitate the Equity by holding mass meetings. The importance given to it by part of the press was greater than its success when keeping in mind the reason for its forming. Indeed, so as to have the membership of the Fidelity appear formidable, some of its meetings were attended by many persons who are connected with the amusement enterprise in a capacity other than actors, among which it is reported house managers, ushers, and doorkeepers with their better halves, etc., could be found. In addition to this, a goodly number of Equity members also attended these meetings and, as a result of the latter, the transaction of business at same was more humorous than important. The actor-manager above referred to, who finally became the chosen President of the Fidelity, donated a check of $100,000 to the Fidelity obviously to emphasize his opinion, however, with woeful lack of foresight, that this opposition organization would mean the death-knell of the Actors Equity. However, the same result followed in the wake of the formation of the Fidelity as followed the instigating of injunction proceedings and damage suits against individual actors by the managers. It strengthened the morale of the Equity.

The only remaining representative theatre which had not been closed by the actors, musicians, and stage hands was the New York Hippodrome. As a result of the activities of the Fidelity League and its actor-manager President, the musicians, stage hands, and chorus withdrew from the performances of the Hippodrome and thus the last representative theatre, managed by a member of the Producing Managers' Association, in Greater New York closed.

However, the deadlock between the managers and the Equity continued and for this reason an extension of the controversy so as to involve the theatres in the entire United States and Canada appeared as an obvious necessity.

The next most important center to New York, as far as the amusement field is concerned, is Chicago and—hence, the Actors Equity concluded to withdraw its members from all theatrical performances in said city. The Stage Hands and Musicians acted in accordance therewith. As a result all prominent theatres in Chicago closed. Thereafter the controversy was extended to Boston and to one house in Washington, as well as in Pittsburgh, Baltimore and Atlantic City. Everywhere the actors, musicians, and stage hands, with few exceptions, fully realized the importance of the situation and, as a result, acted with enthusiasm and promptness which cannot be too highly praised.

Finally, attorneys on behalf of the managers, approached the Equity for a conference. However, preliminary thereto, one attorney, obviously as the spokesman for all of them, conferred with the President of the American Federation of Musicians as well as the President of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes concerning the matter. Numerous conferences between the

WANTED TO LOCATE

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Mr. Jeno Sevely, violinist, please advise E. A. Platt, Secretary Local No. 12, A. F. of M., Sacramento, California.

TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE A. F. OF M.

This office is in receipt of a great many letters from time to time seeking the services of men for hotels, cafes, picture houses, etc., in other cities, but rarely if ever are the most essential points mentioned. Many letters are received which do not state the time of service daily, others again do not state salary, and the most important of all never is a word said about who is to pay transportation. It is impossible to obtain anyone unless these facts are all stated, and with a view of facilitating matters I would thank very much, when writing, to state the following information:

Do you pay transportation both ways?

Do you pay transportation one way?

What are the hours of daily service?

How much salary is paid?

I beg to state that unless transportation is paid at least one way, and the engagement pays at least Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per week for not more than five hours service daily it will be useless to write for men. We have plenty of good men here, but you cannot expect them to leave this city to work for a mere living.

Fraternally yours,
FRANK C. PAULER,
Secretary Local No. 10,
Chicago, Ill.

AN EXPLANATION BY LOCAL NO. 208

Local No. 208 of Chicago, Ill., advises the officers of the American Federation of Musicians that it never intended to enforce a lower price for the services of its members at colored dancing schools than the one maintained by Local No. 10 of Chicago, Ill., and that the communication sent to the President's office concerning the matter, even though sent under the seal of the local, did not express the desire of the local to have its members work for a lower price, but was sent for the purpose of having the fact emphasized that Local No. 208 will not and could not, even if it desired to do so, permit its members to work anywhere for a price lower than that maintained for the same engagement by Local No. 10.

Too Literal.

Stacks. Yes; but she carries it too far sometimes. I was out there to dinner unexpectedly the other day, and she served up a burnt offering.

TO ALL OF ORGANIZED LABOR

Washington. D, C., Sept. 5, 1919.

Dear Sirs and Brothers:

Your attention is called to a most serious situation facing the Cigarmakers' International Union. At the present time 38,000 members of that organization are on strike or locked out. To add to the critical condition of the trade 50,000 unorganized cigarmakers are also on strike.

The cigarmakers of New York City, Chicago, Boston and other towns in New England, several cities in New Jersey and many in Pennsylvania are involved.

Union and non-union men are fighting side by side in a common cause. They are engaged in a struggle to raise the standards of the trade by increasing wages, to better the conditions of employment and to bring hope and comfort to the thousands of unorganized who have been overworked and underpaid for many years.

The employers have resorted to injunctions to break the spirit of the cigarmakers, but have failed to weaken their determination to stand together solidly until they succeed. Every method known to hamper their just struggle has been used. Misrepresentation, denunciation and insidious propaganda have been the weapons of the employers.

In the life of every international union there comes a time when all unions of labor should willingly and unselfishly rally to its support, when the one thought should be that its fight is their fight; that they will not stand indifferently by when a sister organization is in serious need of aid and comfort.

It is a time of stress that requires the greatest consideration. This critical situation was considered by the Executive Council at its special meeting. It was found so alarming that the following resolution was adopted unanimously:

"That the application of the President and the Executive Board of the Cigarmakers' International Union for assistance because of the great number of strikes in which the membership of that organization is involved be approved and that an appeal to organized labor for voluntary contributions in aid of the Cigarmakers' International Union in this controversy be issued."

The Executive Council, therefore, appeals to you to give both your moral and financial support to this most worthy cause. It urges with all its influence that you come to the relief of the Cigarmakers' International Union as soon as possible. It is a cause that must not be permitted to be lost, for much depends on its success.

It is hoped that every member of every union will contribute as generously and promptly as possible and that unions will make appropriations to the extent of their financial ability.

Send all contributions to Frank Morrison, Secretary, American Federation of Labor, A. F. of L. Building, Washington, D. C., who will receipt for same and promptly transmit contributions to the international union.

By order of the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor.

SAML. GOMPERS,
President, American Federation of Labor.

Attest:
FRANK MORRISON,
Secretary.

Jazz

It tickles up and down your spine,
The violins and 'cellos whine,
The cymbals clash, the big cornet
Mixes in with the flageolet
In that syncopating,
aggravating,
animating,
palpitating,
fascinating,
Something that is.....JAZZ

Jazz

Melpomene, please take my hand
And lead me to some colored land,
Where I will hear all night and day
Those famous Darktown strutters play
That most gigantic,
wild and frantic,
melodantic,
corybantic,
necromantic,
Something that is.....JAZZ

Jazz

It hits your head and then your feet
You simply cannot keep your seat,
You want to wiggle, jig and prance
Like old St. Vitus at a dance—
That most emphatic,
most ecstatic,
most erratic,
acrobatic,
achromatic,
Something that is.....JAZZ

All new, original instrumental numbers. Good and stiff, yet easy to play. Arranged by HARRY L. ALFORD, personally. Orchestrated for the following instruments:

Piano	2nd Violin	Bass	Bassoon	1st Cornet	Trombone (bass)
Orch. Piano Solo	Viola	Flute	1st Clarinet	2nd Cornet	Tr'mbone (trble)
1st Violin	Cello	Oboe	2nd Clarinet	Horns	Drums

The ORCHESTRA PIANO SOLO book is a typical "EARL FULLER" Innovation! Experience has taught me that many pianists who are obliged to play the melody (which is necessary in small combinations) have difficulty in filling in the correct harmony when playing from a regular piano part where the melody is cued in, in view of which fact I have published an ORCHESTRA PIANO SOLO book, which, I am sure, will fill a long-felt want among pianists and leaders of small combinations. The books are the same in size and the numbers are, of course, in the same keys. The book marked "PIANO" is the regulation piano arrangement for orchestra with the melody cued in. The ORCHESTRA PIANO SOLO book is a regular piano solo arrangement for orchestra use.

Prices are: Piano books, $1.00 each; 1st Violin book, 75c; all other books, 50c; NET. NO DISCOUNT.
At your dealer, or direct from our office, postpaid upon receipt of price.

Courtois (Paris) Trumpet

The new model Courtois Trumpet was designed especially to meet the requirements of the most discriminating American trumpeters. In this model, American ideas have combined with the superb workmanship and technical knowledge of the French artisans in creating a trumpet that is practically perfect.

The tone has the clear, brilliant, ringing quality that can be produced only from a Courtois. It is exceptionally easy blowing, having just the proper amount of resistance to insure stability of tone. The intonation is as near perfect as it is possible to attain in valve instruments. In fact, all essential qualities have been developed to the highest degree.

The body and bell are made of the inimitable French brass—the valve pumps of Phosphor Bronze, thus insuring long life and satisfactory service.

If you want a trumpet that will give permanent satisfaction, try a Courtois—

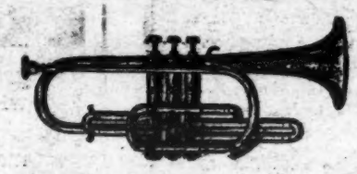
BESSON

Best Brass Band Instruments on Earth

Are YOU Playing One?



If Your Instrument is Not a Besson You Are Simply Handicapping Yourself

Almost every maker claims his horn is the best, but—why do so many of our most critical professional players change to a Besson?

There is only one answer. BESSON BAND INSTRUMENTS have been proven by actual test to be the very finest instruments in tone, material, workmanship, that have ever been produced.

A Besson is an investment for a lifetime. Besson enthusiasts don't change from one make to another; they do before but not after they once own a Besson.

Can you afford to change from one make to another, constantly paying "something to boot"? If not, then send for a Catalog together with our liberal selling proposition and settle this expense once and for all time by buying the very best.

Remember: There is only one BEST MAKE, and That is the BESSON.

THE WORKERS' UNREST.

(By W. B. Rubin)

Patience is a virtue, and peace its goal.

An eminent statesman long ago said: "Peace, peace,—there can be no peace," and he was and still is, right.

There was only one Job on earth.

There was a time when the toiler was most peaceful and obedient, and his master ever proud of his faithful and willing servant. That was in the days of slavery, and later, of "scabbery." Wherever slavery and "scabbery" dwell, peace sojourns.

Unrest brought about FREEDOM and FREEDOM is hinging upon UNREST.

The most peaceably inclined man, after attending a prize fight, will himself be seized with the lust for fight.

The world is full of war. We took part in the late war—lest you forget, (for England and General Haig already seem to have forgotten it), and it is but natural that we still have on our fighting clothes.

A smooth baseball game, however well played, does not impress itself as does the one in which there was a fight and an umpire baiting.

The concert violinist, no matter how wonderful, does not exhilarate the masses as does the jazz dancing fiddler. In fact, the first plays in foreign tone to the throng, and while he is admired so far as his art is concerned, he is somewhat like the injunction. Because it is in Latin, the worker cannot understand it, and therefore defies it.

Soldiers have been shell-shocked, and WE, who have watched the fight, have been FIGHT-SHOCKED. The nerves have sprung! Reserve is gone! It's ALL FIGHT —and WHY NOT?

Nothing is gained in PEACE, save REST.

The worker CANNOT REST. It takes MONEY and FOOD and a COMPETENCE to rest. Between his resources and the end of his rest, there elapse but FIVE DAYS.

Labor leaders find it difficult to control their members at present. However wise their counsel, the members are fighting mad. Moderation, conservatism, are terms obsolete. RADICALISM is rampant. The worker wants to get while the getting is good.

To ask for more than the boss is willing, voluntarily, to give, is RADICALISM. The ignorant and the members of so-called good society even whisper that it is Bolshevism.

Life seeks existence. If the trough is placed too high for the thirsty horse, he will "kick over the traces."

Mr. Profiteer—let me speak to you. Put a soft pedal on too much profit. Get back to earth. Put a stopper on the H. C. of L. You may cut the worker's ration, but he will resent it. His organization may try to keep him in check while negotiating with you, but DON'T STARVE HIM—take my advice, DON'T GET HIM MAD! If the worker ever does get MAD, it's all off with you. He'll hurdle over the fences of his labor organizations, and smash you right and left!

If you are for the present system—your method of dealing with it is sure to kill "the goose that lays the golden eggs" for you.

I repeat—DON'T make the worker MAD. Mad people do not cower before the law. Better get off your high horse—a little less banqueting for you, and a little more substance for the worker—to relieve the strain upon the nerves of the nation.

Come, Mr. Proprietor—forget for once your "filthy lucre." Be a real patriot, and help save the country. God knows its many present perils.

Oh, no—this is not a threat, nor is it a prophecy.

But if you care to profit by Europe's experience in Russia, with similar troubles now threatening everywhere, Italy, France, and England included, you will make your peace with the worker as quickly as possible.

The world will be Capital and Labor living side by side, if you are decent, OR

It will be LABOR, LIVING ALL ALONE!

WHAT IS A FRIEND?

What is a friend? I will tell you. It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself. Your soul can go naked with him. He seems to ask of you to put on nothing, only to be what you are. He does not want you to be better or worse. When you are with him you feel as a prisoner feels who has been declared innocent. You do not have to be on your guard. You can say what you think, so long as it is genuinely you. He understands those contradictions in your nature that lead others to misjudge you. With him you breathe free. You can take off your coat and loosen your collar. You can avow your little vanities and envies, and hates and vicious sparks, your meanness and absurdities, and in opening them up to him they are lost, dissolved on the white ocean of his loyalty. He understands. You do not have to be careful. You can abuse him, neglect him, tolerate him. It makes no matter. He likes you. He is like fire, that purifies all you say. He is like wine, that warms you to the bone. He understands, he understands. You can weep with him, laugh with him, sin with him, pray with him. Through and underneath it all he sees, knows, and loves you. A friend, I repeat, is one with whom you dare to be yourself.—Selected.

THE UNION LABEL.

The Union Label stands for the noblest sentiments and loftiest aspirations of the human race. By it the toiling masses are delivered from industrial thraldom and its beneficent influence extends to the home and fireside.

It is the sign by, and through which the common people may conquer humanity's high-handed oppressors and gain a bloodless victory—the fruits of which will continue to be reaped by generations yet unborn.

It is the emblem of co-operation between employer and employe and completes the relationship necessary to the most effective practice of co-operation, by making the purchaser also a partner in the business.

It is the only guarantee of industrial peace. The child who demands the union label wields more influence for human betterment than the man or woman who strikes.

Tyrannical judges can't enjoin it, soldiers can't shoot it down, traitors can't sell it. Incorruptible and indestructible, it gleams as a diadem in the firmament of hope.

You can easily do your part to help make the world a better and happier place in which to live. Don't save your good intentions for tomorrow. Act TODAY. DEMAND THE UNION LABEL!—From I. A. T. S. E. & M. P. M. O. Journal.

HARMONICS

Do You Know Him?

No, can't come 'round next Sunday,
And I know it's election, too;
I call that day my fun day—
Going fishing with Carew.

But you fellows have to settle
What the raise will be next year;
Keeps a fellow on his mettle,
Food and everything's so dear.

Oh, there's sure to be a quorum;
Gee, the bass are running fine!
Jack and Phil both know I'm for 'em;
I'll try out my new silk line.

Just one shy, and that's the reason
That the schedule's still the same—
That the boys will get next season,
Though next meeting plenty came.

"New officers!" "Let's change the laws!"
You all have heard such cries;
You'll find your laws contain less flaws,
If everybody tries.

Forget about bass and Carew—
The best you'll get's a thirst;
There's just one thing for you to do:
Your local, boys, comes first.

Definition.

A stay of judgment is what the presiding magistrate did not grant Bro. Pres. Weber when instead he handed him a $25 fine after Joseph had too much faith in a speedometer which should have been on the unfair list.

A Vacation.

Tired out!
So went East.
Had no doubt,
Change at least.

I arrived
Glad I came!
Joy short-lived;
Grind the same.

Think I'm jesting?
Call on Joe.
Say you're resting
Then you'll know.

Tired out!
Started West;
Going back
For a rest!

One day this summer, Sandy Summers and his band took train to play an engagement at a nearby town and was routed by the chairman of the music committee, resulting in landing them at a wide place in the road without any train connection to their destination. So to kill time until the return train to Chattanooga they gave a concert in the Square—you all know where this is, I know. The drug store is on one corner and the Post Office is in the other store, and the other store is the grocery. After they had played a few numbers Uncle Silas Winterpoopen walked up to Jno. McGuire, solo clarinet, and handed John two nickels, and said, "Give this to the Foreman." No wonder Sandy can buy a farm.

At the Labor Day exercises at Warner Park a request came in to play "Over There." When the band finished playing it, a small boy stepped up and handed Sandy two pennies. No profiteering there. What?

W. W. Moscoe, one of Local 80's oldest members, is with Gus Hills' Minstrels.

E. F. Belding, former secretary of 80, was a visitor from Knoxville this week.

Karl Givin, trombone, is back home from Knoxville where he has been playing the Summer Band concerts. Karl used to play good first trombone, but I hear that he is playing second now. Why? He is married.

O. F. Pennebaker, trombone, one of 80's charter members, has just returned from a trip to the scenes of his boyhood in Indiana, and reports everything very dry. And that is all he said.

The Danville Municipal Band has finished their series of park concerts. The last concert at Lincoln was extraordinary, featured by several soloists, and was attended by one of the largest audiences of the season.

The members of the Municipal Band staged a big band tournament at the I. & I. Fair Grounds Sunday, August 24th. Fifteen bands participated. The prize of $200 was won by the Terre Haute Band. The Buescher Saxophone Quartette from Elkhart, Ind., was an added attraction, and they scored a big hit. The tournament was preceded by a parade of all bands consolidated on the city streets. Mr. V. J. Grabel was master in charge of the entire day's entertainment.

Local 90 has revised the salary scale for the theaters of Danville. Under the new scale the leader of orchestra wil receive $45.00 per week of seven days, and side-men will receive $35.00 per week of seven days. The new scale went into effect September 1st, 1919.

The quarterly dues of Local 90 have been increased to $1.00 per quarter.

G. H. Baum, former secretary of Local 90, and who just recently returned from overseas service with the gallant 33rd Division, has taken unto himself a wife. The fair one is Miss Harriet Manning.

The Danville Municipal Band under the direction of Mr. V. J. Grabel, made a big hit at the I. & I. Fair at the Danville Fair Grounds. The band played afternoon and evening concerts the entire week of the big fair. Thirty-five musicians were used. On Labor Day the band was the main attraction at the Moose celebration, Hoopeston, Ill.

The Band and Local 90 have moved into their new quarters over 16½ E. Main street. They occupy the entire third floor. The hall is complete with a stage for the holding of social sessions.

Local 90 has succeeded in having the Palace and Fischer Theaters of Danville sign a new wage scale. The old wage contract expired September 1st, 1919, and when the contracts were presented to the managers they refused to sign under any circumstances, with all kinds of threats such as closing the theaters, installing Vitrolas, Squawk pianos and organs before they would sign contracts as were handed them. Negotiations went on for six weeks, with midnight sessions and day sessions almost every hour. The managers of both theaters agreed between themselves to hold out and not sign without the consent of the other. The musicians of both houses were pulled off the job and for four days neither house had music. The Palace installed a Victrola the fourth day of the walk-out, and when the Stage Hands and Operators notified the manager of the Palace to the effect that the moment they started playing that machine they, too, would walk out, the manager then ordered it taken back to the music house, and finally when the manager of the Fischer broke the ice by signing, then the manager of the Palace got busy and put his "John Henry" to the contract. The new agreement calls for: The Fischer—Leader, $45 per week, six hours per day, seven days per week, 15 min. rest each hour, five musicians minimum; The Palace—Leader, $50 per week, seven hours per day, seven days per week, 15 min. rest each hour, five musicians minimum. The Palace is using up to eight musicians.

For the first time in three years this local had musicians performing in the Labor Day parade, and we were paid at the rate of time and one-half for it, by the Trades and Labor Council of this city. This year we all went hand in hand and handled our own program and the result was that no craft was assessed one cent, and the Trades and Labor Council after paying all bills had a neat sum left over, and many thanks are due to the men who could see both sides of the question.

Bro. John MacLuskie, former president of our local (serving as such for twelve years, up until the time of his enlistment with the 109th Field Artillery, being bandmaster), has just won the Republican nomination for sheriff of Luzerne County, against the strongest kind of opposition he came out on top with flying colors. Although the Democrats have a very strong candidate as Mac's opponent, we feel sure that MacLuskie is our next sheriff. The musicians are working strenuously. The boys from the different towns furnished bands for parades which were held all over the country.

The Only Worthy Successor to "Beautiful Ohio" Waltz

WALTZ Band or Orch., 25c DREAMY ALABAMA By Mary Earl

Yes, it's by the same writer as "Beautiful Ohio" Waltz and maybe that's why it really can be compared with that wonderful international success. "Beautiful Ohio" was "some" hit, but "Dreamy Alabama" looks even greater. If you want a real waltz hit then add it to your library today.

Our local has revised the price list and boosted dance jobs to six dollars per night to 1 o'clock. Also we are getting out a new book on by-laws.

The treasury depleted last year is now showing an "on hand."

Business has been good and a large number of men are working.

A new jazz orchestra has been organized called "Vic's Original Jazz Band," and is the first real "jazzer" originating in Kankakee.

Local 288 is trying to unionize the moving picture houses and very likely will succeed.

Bro. Sylvester sold his "Gaiety" picture house to Bro. Purdue of Marion, Ind., who took charge about Sept. 5th, and he will put in a few acts of vaudeville, and, necessarily, an orchestra of four pieces. Every little helps.

Our big fair was greater than ever and Bro. Tolson's (president) band of twenty-five local members were given a big "write-up" in the papers.

The Henry Boyle, Orpheum, Bijou and Ida Theatres of this city are on the unfair list of the A. F. of M., with the consent of President Weber. The main objection of the managers seems to be the minimum number of men law in effect in this city. The stage hands are called out October 1st and it is hoped that the matter will be adjusted in a short time.

RECORD-SMASHING HITS!

MR. LEADER

These are from the West, where most of the hits now come from. Do you know "Mickey," "Hiawatha," "Smiles," "Vamp," "Sand Dunes," and hundreds of other recent hits came out of the West? You never saw three that looked better for smashing hits, or better dance numbers.

12th Street Rag

Fox Trot Arrangement.

You've been wondering where to get this, the best rag ever written. Well, we are now the publishers, and it's going over big. We are swamped with orders for the song and piano solo arrangements. The orchestra arrangement is great for dancing!

Band or Orchestra, with Saxophones, 25c

LOVE BLOSSOM

Waltz

By Lucien Denni. Arranged by Harry Alford.

The song is wonderfully popular, but that is not the reason we think it will be the biggest waltz hit in the country. It is because it is the most unique, the most melodious waltz melody we ever heard, and the rhythm and style so unusual. Every time the leaders play it, the dancers insist upon its being repeated time and time again.

Don't fail to send for this, the waltz melody of the season.

Orchestra arrangement 25c. Full band 25c.

Cinda Lou

PURE JAZZ

A singing Fox Trot Jazz. By Chas. Beetho.

A wonderful "Get Together" song dance. This is the orchestration of the song which is sweeping through the country like wild fire.

"CINDA LOU" is a natural hit. All we will have to do is to get you leaders to play it once. Just once!. Then you will want to play it and your dancers will insist upon having it.

Orchestra 25c With Saxophones Band 25c

We think ourselves wonderfully fortunate in being able to offer you at the same time three such attractive dance numbers. Get them and play them on every job!

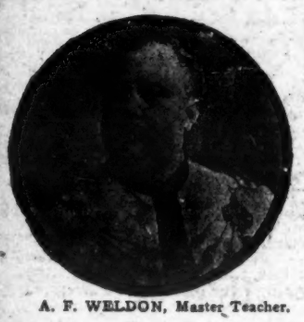
JOHN R. MEILER, DAYTON, OHIO

SPECIAL FREE OFFER



A. F. WELDON, Master Teacher.

Here is an offer that no Cornetist, either Amateur or Professional, can afford to pass; write us what course you are interested in (Beginners or Advanced) and we will at once send you ABSOLUTELY FREE—six (6) Weldon Lessons to do with precisely as you like. Send no money, just your name and address. We make this remarkable fall season offer for advertising purposes, knowing that Weldon's Lessons are in themselves their own strongest possible argument. As we have set aside only a limited number of the lessons for this purpose please let us hear from you promptly.

We need not remind you that Weldon, the greatest Cornet teacher that ever lived, spent his entire life in gaining the knowledge that you need to perfect your ability as a Cornet Player. Readers of this publication all know WELDON, but some may not yet know that the Great Master prepared exclusively for this School two Correspondence Courses, embodying the very cream of his life's work as Soloist, Conductor and Teacher; one for amateurs and beginners, and one for professionals and advanced players.

CORNET SECRETS REVEALED.

Marvelous Cornet Secrets are revealed in these lessons of Weldon's and you need them, no matter what your experience may be. If you possessed the knowledge that Weldon's instruction can easily and quickly teach you, your rise to the top of your profession would indeed be meteoric—your quick success would be assured—your personal pleasure, pay and professional prestige would increase by leaps and bounds.

HAVE YOU STUDIED HARMONY?

No cornetist can perfect his work without a thorough knowledge of Harmony, the "grammar" of Music. Harmony teaches you to analyze music, memorize more rapidly, transpose at sight, harmonize melodies, detect wrong notes and to compose, arrange or orchestrate in a musicianly manner. You can quickly "round out" your education by taking our Harmony Lessons under Adolph Rosenbecker and Dr. Daniel Protheroe, America's most prominent Teachers.

Each lesson is an orderly step in advance, clear, thorough and correct; not the mere mechanical application of dry-as-dust rules, but an interesting, intelligent, thoroughly practical method that grips your attention and stimulates your ambition to succeed from the very beginning. A written examination on each lesson, in connection with ample original work, develops your knowledge and firmly fixes the important principles in your mind.

An ounce of proof is worth a pound of promise. We have a solid wall of proof from graduate students. Valuable art catalog, 6 sample lessons, Harmony or Cornet, mailed on request.

Bro. John H. Shepherd, transferred from Wilkesbarre, is playing organ in the Lorenz Moving Picture Theatre. He is a noted musician, having been musical director of the Mansfield State Normal School for three years, and was organist in the Second Presbyterian Church of Scranton, Pa., and of the First Presbyterian Church at Wilkesbarre, Pa. He at one time was organist of the Irem Temple of the Shriners, where he gave 24 recitals one season, playing 18 without repeating a number. He played for pictures in the Savoy Theatre, and in the Orpheum Theatre at Wilkesbarre; from the Orpheum, he was secured to play at the Lorenz Theatre, and he has already made an excellent reputation for himself with the audiences at this theatre by his wonderful interpretation (in the musical sense) of the pictures.

On August 28th, with Bro. Gamble as the advisor, the local committee "pulled" 13 bands out of the P. O. S. of A. parade, which was an "unfair" parade, because of the presence of the Beth. Steel Co. band. This band was the third in the line of parade, and after the music of this band had died away, the parade was devoid of all band music (except that little which came from drum corps) until the end of the parade, when the Glenwood Hall Band of Tannersville, and the Nazareth Band of Nazareth (non-union) furnished the music.

Bro. Head, No. 397, who recently purchased the Thrift Theater, has made a good beginning by installing an up-to-date four-piece orchestra to compete with the "groan makers" across the street, and we predict success for the house. Welcome, Bro. Head, we tried to keep you out, but are glad you came.

Our local Chamber of Commerce has at last, under their new management, tired of trying to "break" the musicians, but have at last kicked in with them to the extent of employing a director, Bro. Paul Heimberger of No. 397, at a salary of $150 per month, band members to be paid local scale. We foresee a good band as a result. No. 429 has fought for her rights with these "birds" for five years and now rejoice to see our efforts crowned with success.

This office is pleased to report that the Colonial Theatre has put in an orchestra for their Saturday night and Sunday show and the bunch style themselves the "Little Symphony." James Ballard is leader and the balance of the orchestra is as follows: Howard Bronson, clarinet; Dall Fieds, bassoon; Mrs. Jas. Ballard, piano. Heard them play Raymond the other night and needless to say they got through it without getting "all wet." The dancers still flock to the Wylie Park Pavilion and Director Bronson and his band are sure putting out the real dance music. There is a movement on foot now to maintain the band the season round and here's hoping it goes through, as it will tend to hold the gang together and incidently get No. 476 a bunch of "full memberships." Bro. John Sandeen has decided that it would be cheaper to buy a new bass than polish up the old one, so has ordered a nice new "shiney" one.

The Lyon & Healy Improved Own-Make Trumpet

In Bb and A, Low and High Pitch. Rotary Change to A. Adjusting Ring On Third Valve Slide.

THIS instrument possesses, in the highest degree, the distinctive voice quality which marks the difference between the genuine trumpet and the "hybrid" long cornet so often found masquerading as a trumpet. Clear, sparkling and martial in tone, yet possessing in mezzo voce a beautiful, lyric, singing quality, it is the character of instrument demanded by the great writers of oratorio, symphony and grand opera. It has the flexibility, power and timbre necessary to the rendition of the highest class of music. In smoothness of scale, ease of blowing and facility of playing in the extreme high and low registers it has no rival among instruments of its family.

Built in low pitch and supplied with high pitch slides, or in low pitch only, as desired.

This Trumpet is built on perfect trumpet proportions, of the very best materials obtainable, by workmen of the highest class. It is guaranteed for its entire lifetime against any possible defect in workmanship or material.

Sold on easy terms if desired, and sent on one week's free trial.

$90 to $155

The weekly concerts of the Soo City Band are about over for the season, after one of the most successful seasons on record. Band Master Hanson took a vacation of ten days recently and during his absence Sergt. Sal Luberto was placed in charge. Sergt. Luberto was assistant band master of the 125th Infantry Band overseas.

On June 22d Sousa and his Band played two concerts in the High School auditorium and both concerts were packed to capacity. Sousa played his usual inspiring programs and to say that he pleased his audience would be putting it mildly. After both matinee and evening concerts the members of Local 593 entertained the members of the Band in the Elks' Club and served them with refreshments. They were also escorted by our members to a trip over the world's famous Soo Locks, and they all proclaimed it to be the most wonderful sight they had ever witnessed.

attorneys of the managers and representatives of the Actors' Equity Association, American Federation of Musicians and International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employes were subsequently held. The actors were represented by their attorneys, Mr. Gilmore, and by Attorney Rubin,, late of Milwaukee, who offered his services without recompense. His friendship to the actors proved of the sincerest kind and his services were found to be invaluable. Finally, an agreement was reached which seemed mutually satisfactory. The representatives of the Stage Hands, Musicians and Actors were left under the impression that by conferring with the attorneys of the managers and agreeing with them upon the conditions as to the ending of the strike that the agreement reached would be signed by the managers. Much to the surprise of the actors, stage hands, and musicians, the day after the closing of the conference, a notice appeared in the press that the managers had rejected the offer of the actors and that no settlement was in sight. As a result of this it was immediately concluded to further extend the scope of the controversy and, consequently, hundreds of local unions affiliated with the stage hands and musicians were made aware of this fact. The day following one of the most famous playwrights of our country approached the individual members of the Committee sounding them as to their willingness to meet a committee composed of managers. This was, of course, readily agreed to. The same evening for the first time during the controversy the principals in same represented by a committee of the managers and the actors, together with the President of our Federation and of the Stage Hands Alliance met. This conference which did not adjourn until the early morning hours resulted in the declaring of an armistice with the understanding that the day following an agreement would be signed between the Equity and the managers to be countersigned by representatives of the musicians and stage hands.

The day following a general committee, consisting of the representatives of the Equity and Managers, together with their attorneys, met for the purpose of formulating and signing the agreement. On behalf of the Equity, the President of the American Federation of Musicians was appointed to act as a lay member on this general committee. As the result of an eleven hour meeting, the agreement was signed and thus the biggest upheaval that has ever developed in the history of the American theatre came to an end.

In the foregoing I only referred to the controversy between the Actors Equity Association and the Managers without any reference to the Chorus Equity Association. For a full understanding of the connection of the latter with the strike, we must bear in mind that at the beginning of the controversy no Chorus union existed but same sprung spontaneously into being as a result of the strike and the Actors Equity Association made the demands of the Chorus Equity Association for better conditions of the members of the Chorus part of their own demands. These demands then of necessity also formed one of the topics of negotiations at the conferences and a settlement was not made until an understanding was also reached concerning them. Directly upon the forming of the Chorus Equity, its members also went on strike and during the entire controversy showed the same splendid morale which so distinguished the Actors Equity.

A more comprehensive report of the entire matter, containing a full description of all the complications and developments during the strike (important and otherwise) which followed each other with lightning rapidity, will be made to the next Convention.

THE WORLD'S BEST BARITONIST

The Keefer Oxford Model Baritone, which I have been playing for years, I think is by far the best of any which I have had in my hands during a professional career of over fifty years. In this time I have met with every make of any pretensions to high quality, and I can candidly and truthfully say that for beauty and volume of tone, free blowing qualities, and promptness of valve action it is the most perfect instrument made today.
THOMAS FOOKES.

In Dan Godfrey's world-famous "Grenadier Guards Band," of England, Mr. Fookes played Solo Baritone for a number of years. In the British Royal Marine Artillery Band he also played Solo Baritone.

He played Solo Baritone in Walley Reeves "American Band," of Providence, in the days when that was America's greatest band—in the days when Fred Innes and Bowen Church and a host of other celebrities were with it.

President Hayes tendered him the leadership of the United States Marine Band, an opportunity Mr. Fookes had to pass by on account of ill health in his family. Mr. Sousa then became bandmaster of the Marine Band.

Mr. Fookes has played around the world with Sousa's Band several times. He has played several season engagements with Victor Herbert's Orchestra. He played with the Hammerstein Manhattan Opera Companies; with Conreid's Metropolitan Opera Company, and declined a flattering offer to play with the Chicago-Philadelphia Opera Company.

He plays with the Edison Concert Band and the Edison Symphony Orchestra, and is the most sought for Baritonist in New York today.
